

THE
GRIFFIS ART CENTER

INTERNATIONAL ARTIST-in-RESIDENCE PROGRAM – MAISON des ARTISTES
NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT USA

Svetoslav (Slavy) GEORGIEV

2011 Griffis Art Center's International Writer/Musician-in-Residence

Sofia, Republic of Bulgaria
(1957 – 2013)

SVETOSLAV (SLAVY) GEORGIEV

2011 Griffis Art Center's
International Artist in-Residence from Sofia, Republic of Bulgaria

A bard, author, performer of popular songs, poet, publicist and satirist with multiple publications

Born on 10/02/1957 in Haskovo (Хасково), Bulgaria

He graduated from the Higher Institute of Music and Pedagogy (HIMP) in Plovdiv in Conducting

He played as a musician in the State Department of Music in Sofia, as well as in Norway, Denmark, Switzerland, and Germany.

He worked as a Managing Director of an Art-Centre for young people.

He was a Chief Expert in the 36th and 37th National Assembly.

He is an author and anchorman of "Sharen svyat" (Colorful world) broadcast at 7 DNI (7DAYS) TV and of "Chasat na dumite" (The hour of words) at the Bulgarian National Radio (BNR).

He is a bard, author and performer of popular songs, a poet, publicist and satirist with multiple publications in the periodic press.

He is the Author of two poetry books – "A season for separations" and "At least once"
His third poetry book is to be published soon – "Two suitcases of memories."

He is the Chief Manager of the Union of Bulgarian Writers and a member of the Management Board of the Union of Bulgarian Writers.